

Please retain the Indiana Law concerning telephone solicitation. We have had our privacy and have not had a meal interrupted since this law went into effect. We sent in the names of two violaters and received confirmation from the Attorney General's office that the solicitor had been fined.